

new of early lettuce trial plots in Imperial Valley after selection work has been completed. Plants not saved have been destroyed and remaining ones are shooting seed stalks.
Some plants matured sufficiently to necessitate covering with cotton sugar liners to prevent insect contamination of flowers and to prevent loss of seed at harvest.